The purpose of the First District Emergency Response Advisory Council is to foster discussion on emergency issues among fire and EMS, law enforcement and county administrators. Issues addressed in this council include hurricane preparedness, mass casualty situations and training and education.